

6TH ANNUAL COACH TRAP MEMORIAL WRESTLING TOURNAMENT

● BATTERY CREEK HIGH SCHOOL ●

JANUARY 16-17, 2015

Battery Creek High School and its wrestling program would like to invite your team to participate in the 6th Annual Coach Trap Memorial Duals to be held on January 16-17, 2015. This is one of the longest running and most successful duals tournaments in South Carolina. It was held for nearly 20 years as the Battery Creek Duals prior to it being renamed to honor one of BC's former assistant coaches. This past tournament each team that participated wrestled at least four matches while still running a bracket format to determine the tournament champion.

Teams of all talent levels and classifications participate in the tournament and we hope you will consider having your team become part of the event this coming season. This past year's commitments included:

*Norcross (GA) High School
Summerville High School
Bamberg-Ehrhardt High School
Battery Creek High School
Beaufort High School
Cane Bay High School
Colleton County High School
Clover High School
Whale Branch High School
Liberty High School*

*Hilton Head High School
James Island Charter High School
Stratford High School
Sumter High School
Wando High School
West Oak High School
Richmond Hill (GA) High School
Chapin High School
Lexington High School*

The entry fee will be $200.00 per school with individual medals and team trophies being presented to the top three teams. Please let us know if you wish to participate by contacting any of our wrestling coaches listed below. We will provide you with a quality, well-run tournament that will provide outstanding wrestling opportunities for your athletes, in addition to one of the best hospitality rooms you will find at any tournament.

Thanks and we look forward to hosting you in 2014,

Nate Day

BCHS Head Wrestling Coach
